

POINT LOMA WOOD HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

Homeowner Contact Information, HOA Directory, and

Consent to Electronic Delivery of HOA Documents and Notices

Providing the HOA with your contact information and email address allows us to stay in contact as a community. Your information, including email address, will never be sold or distribute for any other purpose. Your information, as you choose (see below) will be included in the HOA Directory, which is available to all members of the HOA.

If you agree to electronic delivery, HOA notices and documents will be sent to you via email. They will also be posted on the HOA's website, or if privacy concerns prevent such posting, you will be directed as to how to access or obtain the document. Further, you may enroll in or cancel your enrollment in electronic delivery at any time by mailing or delivering this form with your original signature to the then current President of the HOA. This form is available on the HOA website at www.pointlomawoods.org. If you change your email address, you will need to complete and submit a new form.
